Changing The Way You See The World

September 2010

A Message from the President

September is a great time of year for me. The weather is cooling off and the trees display all their color. We are lucky to live in Wisconsin with such pretty falls. I am sitting on our back deck today. The birds are visiting my pond complete with running water into the birdbath. I also have a waterfall that is made from a rain chain. The birds love stopping by to take a drink from that too. Today is the first time I have seen an oriole in our backyard. I knew they were around, but I never saw one. The different species seem to take their turn visiting the pond. You can relate the different species of birds to the different human species or cultural groups around the world. They are all a little different and it is interesting to learn all about their differences. Enjoy your back yards before the snow flies. You may learn something about nature too.

This week we have a new daughter. Her name is Christina. She is participating in a student exchange program. Christina will be here for the school season. It will be a nice change in our home from just Gary and I. She will bring us back to our younger days. We will learn all about Christina and she will learn all about us. We met her parents back in 1982 when we participated in our first exchange to Gelsenkirchen. My brother stayed with her father. We got to know Werner and his girlfriend Annette in only that short one week homestay. The following year, they came to Madison and stayed with us for a week. We just clicked and have been friends ever since. We went to Germany and witnessed their wedding. Over the years we have visited their entire family. They all know us and we know all of them. We try to visit their home every 4-5 years, usually for a special occasion. They have been Houseboating on the Mississippi River with us. We have toured Germany with them. It will be a very fine year for us.

When was the last time you checked out our own website – www.ffwis.org ? Well then it is time to see what is out there. The newsletter is put on the site as it is sent to the printer. You can read the newsletter at least a week before the hard copy arrives in your mailbox. This month we will send an email alert giving you a link to the newsletter. You may find this is a better way of receiving the newsletter. Let me know how you like reading it on line. ALSO the newsletter for August was misprinted. For the full copy you can visit the website and read the articles that were omitted. The articles are also reprinted in this newsletter.

Friendship Force International ONLINE Magazine. Here is a link to the first on-line FFI Magazine. <http://www.thefriendshipforce.org/index.php/site/featuredexchange/> Between 1983 and 2009, Friendship Force International (FFI) published a magazine by the name of Friendship. Thousands of members enjoyed receiving this colorful and informative publication about the global activities of the Friendship Force. FFI just began publication of the next generation of “Friendship” as an on-line magazine. The first issue is on the website with a fascinating cover story about an exchange to Morocco. Reading the article and seeing the photos will make you want to join the next such exchange. However you will notice there is only a cover story. The rest of the magazine is being developed and will include timely articles on exchanges, clubs and other news of interest to all members. Best of all its free and available on the web. If you are signed up for email alerts from FFI, you will receive an email when the next Magazine is ready to view. FFI would love for you to submit stories of your FF travels. Let them know what you would like to see or if you have an article or idea to submit, please do so by sending it to editor@thefriendshipforce.org

ADOPT A HIGHWAY

SATURDAY OCTOBER 2

Volunteers are needed to pick up trash along Hwy 12 from the Park and Ride lot at the end of Parmenter St. (Exit 249) to CTH "K" about one mile. Ten volunteers works out nice. Meet and start at the Park and Ride by 8:30 am. With ten of us we should be finished by 11:00 am depending on how much we have to pick up. This spring we were done before 10:00 am.

Please call me to volunteer or for any questions at 249-8250. This will save me from making telephone calls asking for help.

Thank You,

DON GOSTOMSKI, Chairperson

Turkey in 2011

Wisconsin to Urla of Greater Izmir, Turkey
Early October 2011

Your one opportunity for an outbound international exchange next year will be to Urla of Greater Izmir, Turkey, in early October 2011.

At our Fall Festival in October, there will be a sign-up sheet whereby you can indicate your possible interest in this exchange.

Interviews will be somewhat later.

Incoming Exchange from Norderstedt, Germany

In May of 2007 our club spent a wonderful week in Norderstedt, Germany just north of Hamburg. We stayed with gracious, helpful people, visited many interesting places, and learned many things.

Now we have the chance to reciprocate. The Friendship Force of Norderstedt is coming to the USA next year and will be in Madison around September 19-26, 2011.

While all the Germans speak English, if you can answer, "Ja" to this question, "Sprechen Sie Deutsch?" you have an important skill that Richard could use. (Payment is in brats and barley pops.) We always look forward to the incoming exchanges, and this one will be fascinating for all participants.

I know that a year in advance is way too far to commit, but I would appreciate finding out who might be interested.

If you are interested in helping out on a planning committee, perhaps hosting, day hosting, or dinner hosting with our old and new German friends, please let know,

SHE WILL BE MISSED

Phyllis Metcalf was a long time member of The Wisconsin Friendship Force, serving as the exchange director for South Africa in 1996. Phyllis and her husband LeRoy participated in several exchanges and served on many committees. She recently passed away and we offer our condolences to LeRoy and her family.

Update on New Way to Travel – Friendship Force Global Exchange

Plans for six global exchanges were developed by creative and knowledgeable FF members and then were discussed at the August FFW Board Meeting. The themes were: Arts – 2 weeks - scheduled around July Art Fair on Square; Co-host with Milwaukee, Beer, Wine, Cheese – 1 week, Frank Lloyd Wright – 1 week, Gardens – 1 week – Summer, Quilting - 1 week - scheduled around Quilt Expo September, Waterways – 1 week Mid-May – Mid-September. Due mostly to our exchange schedule for 2010 and concern about double booking our home hosts, the themes of art, beer/wine/cheese and Wright were selected to move forward.

The next critical need is an exchange director -contact Nancy Mueller or Mary Lindquist if you are interested. Three current board members are willing to work on the planning committee and tentative plans are available so the leader has a head start.

The sound level at the brainstorming session on August 2, 2010 was high due to the enthusiasm of the idea generators: Kay Babcock, Sylvia Lowell, John Olson, Joan Calkins, Tom Miller, Jane Scharer, Lise Skofronick, Mary Ann Fahl, Rosann Sherrill, Nancy Dorl, Paul Buckalew, Marian Ehrenberg, Dave Vermillion, Richard Mueller, Margo McKnight, George Wysock, Jane Kessenich. Suggestions submitted before the planning session came from Gene Dewey, Pat Holt, Margy Walker, Donna Calvert, and Dick Walker. Mary Lindquist brought her computer to help with research. Special thanks to Janet Harvey who prepared a roast turkey, garden fresh vegetables, and two types of desserts for the hungry crowd.

NANCY MUELLER, Session coordinator

Recruitment Time

Would you like to be an Exchange Director (ED) for 2012? Yes, 2012. We are looking at a couple of interesting exchanges and would like to have an ED in place and ready to begin planning the exchange. The specialty exchange could be one of the following: "The Arts – There is Art in Everything", "Beer, Wine, Cheese & Chocolate" and Frank Lloyd Wright. The intention is to finalize the agenda and move forward with the Specialized Exchange. We will also have an Inbound and Outbound Exchange assigned to us by FFI. That will be announced sometime at the beginning of 2011.

Does one of these Exchanges intrigue you? Do you like to work in a committee? Do you like organizing and planning? Then you are ready to be an ED. If you feel you would like to be an ED but feel you are not qualified, I have several experienced individuals that would love to mentor you. You will begin with a personalized "ED Get Acquainted" session explaining in detail the process. We will review all the many resources for you to draw from. Come forward and give back to the organization that you love to participate in.

An invitation to FF members.....especially those who travelled to Costa Rica:

I have received word that my Costa Rican hostess, Lillian Chan, and Lil Genskow's hostess, Gloria Sandoval, will be coming to Madison to visit in September. I would like to invite anyone who is interested in greeting them to my home for a leisurely Sunday afternoon on Lake Waubesa on September 19th at 2pm. I will provide snacks and lemonade. Bring-along snacks and beverages are welcome to add to the mix.

Directions: I live at 2864 Lakeside Street, Madison, 53711 which is next to Goodland County Park.

Take the Southtown exit off the beltline and go south past Walmart. Turn left at the first road after the round about which is Moorland Rd. You will pass Lake Farm Park and the Lussier Family Nature Center. (The road changes its name to Lake Farm Rd and then again to Goodland Park Rd but it is all the same road.) Go past the park through the picturesque countryside a few miles until you come to a stop sign. Go straight through. My house is the 3rd house on the right on Lakeside St. and is the only white house on that little circle street. Parking is extremely limited to my driveway (room for 3 cars) and lawn (2 cars) so please consider car-pooling or park at Goodland Park boat launch and walk over. Those who come by boat can tie up at my pier, which is the third one south of the boat launch. I have a kayak and a canoe for those who want to venture out onto the lake. Bring your fishing poles????

Please RSVP 608 467-2966 to Mary Lou Martino by September 17th.
